2. In line with the Cemetery's long range landscaping plan, no tree or bush plantings, no planters or other permanent flower containers, and no benches can be installed by the individual lot owners.
3. Lawn maintenance for Armstrong Chapel Cemetery will be that which is appropriate for a country cemetery, versus a finely groomed, park-like cemetery.

When a recognized survivor (spouse or offspring) desires to have a cemetery lot prepared for burial, he or she should contact the Operations Manager of the Cemetery Association or the designated assistant through the Church Office. At this time, the recognized survivor should inform the cemetery contact if the deceased was a Veteran of a United States War and which one.
6. The Grave will be staked out by a member of the Cemetery Board for opening by the grave diggers, obtained by the survivor from their mortuary or monument service. Please remember, that only approved power equipment can be used for opening graves, depending upon type of equipment, location of the lot, and current weather conditions.
7. Engraving on monuments or head stones should be placed such that it can be read from the west in compliance with the historical pattern. (The engraved side of the stone faces the back of the Old Chapel church building.)
